

Animal Location Survey for CCART

The following survey is being conducted by the Clear Creek County Animal Response Team. This team has been formed to assist emergency personnel with evacuation of smaller companion animals in case of wildfire, toxic spill or other natural or manmade disaster that may occur in Clear Creek County. Please fill out and return this survey and assist us in helping you rescue your animals if you are not available to do it yourself. The results will remain confidential and only be used to assist crews in locating animals during an emergency situation. Please fill out and return to CCART, P.O. Box 2000, Georgetown, CO 80444. If you have any questions, please call Donna Gee (303)668-0924. If more room is needed, please list additional animals on a separate sheet of paper.

List each stock animal currently residing on your property. If a herd, please be as specific as possible as to the size of the herd. This includes horses, llamas, alpacas, cows, sheep, etc.

I understand that this information will only be used by emergency personnel regarding evacuation of any of the animals on my property. By signing this survey, I, the property owner, give a CCART member or volunteer assisting with the evacuation of animals, full access to my property and house in order to remove animals in immediate danger during an emergency situation. I understand that any equipment available such as halters, lead ropes, kennels or other items that will assist in evacuating my animals may be used by the CCART personnel for my animal's rescue. I will hold no member of the CCART group or volunteer assisting with an evacuation responsible for any damage to my property, animals or any equipment that may be used for those animals. I also understand my animals will be housed at a chosen location at the time of the evacuation until I am able to make other arrangements for my animals' care. Small animals may be left up to 2 days. PROOF OF OWNERSHIP WILL BE REQUIRED to redeem any animal that is housed at the facility. Livestock owners will be required to have certificates or veterinarian paperwork; companion animals should have the same paperwork but in their case, something as simple as a photo of you taken with your animal or animals could be sufficient depending on the circumstances.
